Foreword

I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow. I believe in beauty in the school-room, in the home, in daily life, and in the out-of-doors. I believe in laughter, in love, in faith, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the joy of living. The most precious things of life are near at hand. Each of you has the whole wealth of the universe at your very door. All may be yours by stretching forth your hand and taking it. The memories, treasures, lives, and hopes are portrayed in many different ways. For my list of memories T.R.S. will always be at the top.

LANCE CORPORAL LEON ROSS BARICKMAN

We, the class of 1970, of Truman High School, do dedicate the Truhiscan to Lance Corporal Leon Ross Barickman, USMC, who gave his life in Viet Nam on July 27, 1969.

Leon, a 1967 graduate of Truman, was an active member of the FFA, the FTA, the Wrestling squad, the Student Council, the Truman Thespians and various other organizations. He served in several offices, some of which were president of his class, president of FFA and Captain of the Wrestling squad. One of the highlights of his high school days, was playing his bass guitar in the Rogue's IV, Rock and Roll Band, which was in great demand throughout the area. Leon was well-liked, friendly and always present where the action was.

Having always nurtured a desire to be a Marine, he enlisted in the Marine Corps on April 18, 1968. Needless to say, those of us who knew him best, understand why his graduation from Boot Camp as a PFC was the proudest day of his life; he had achieved his purpose in life--a goal from childhood days.

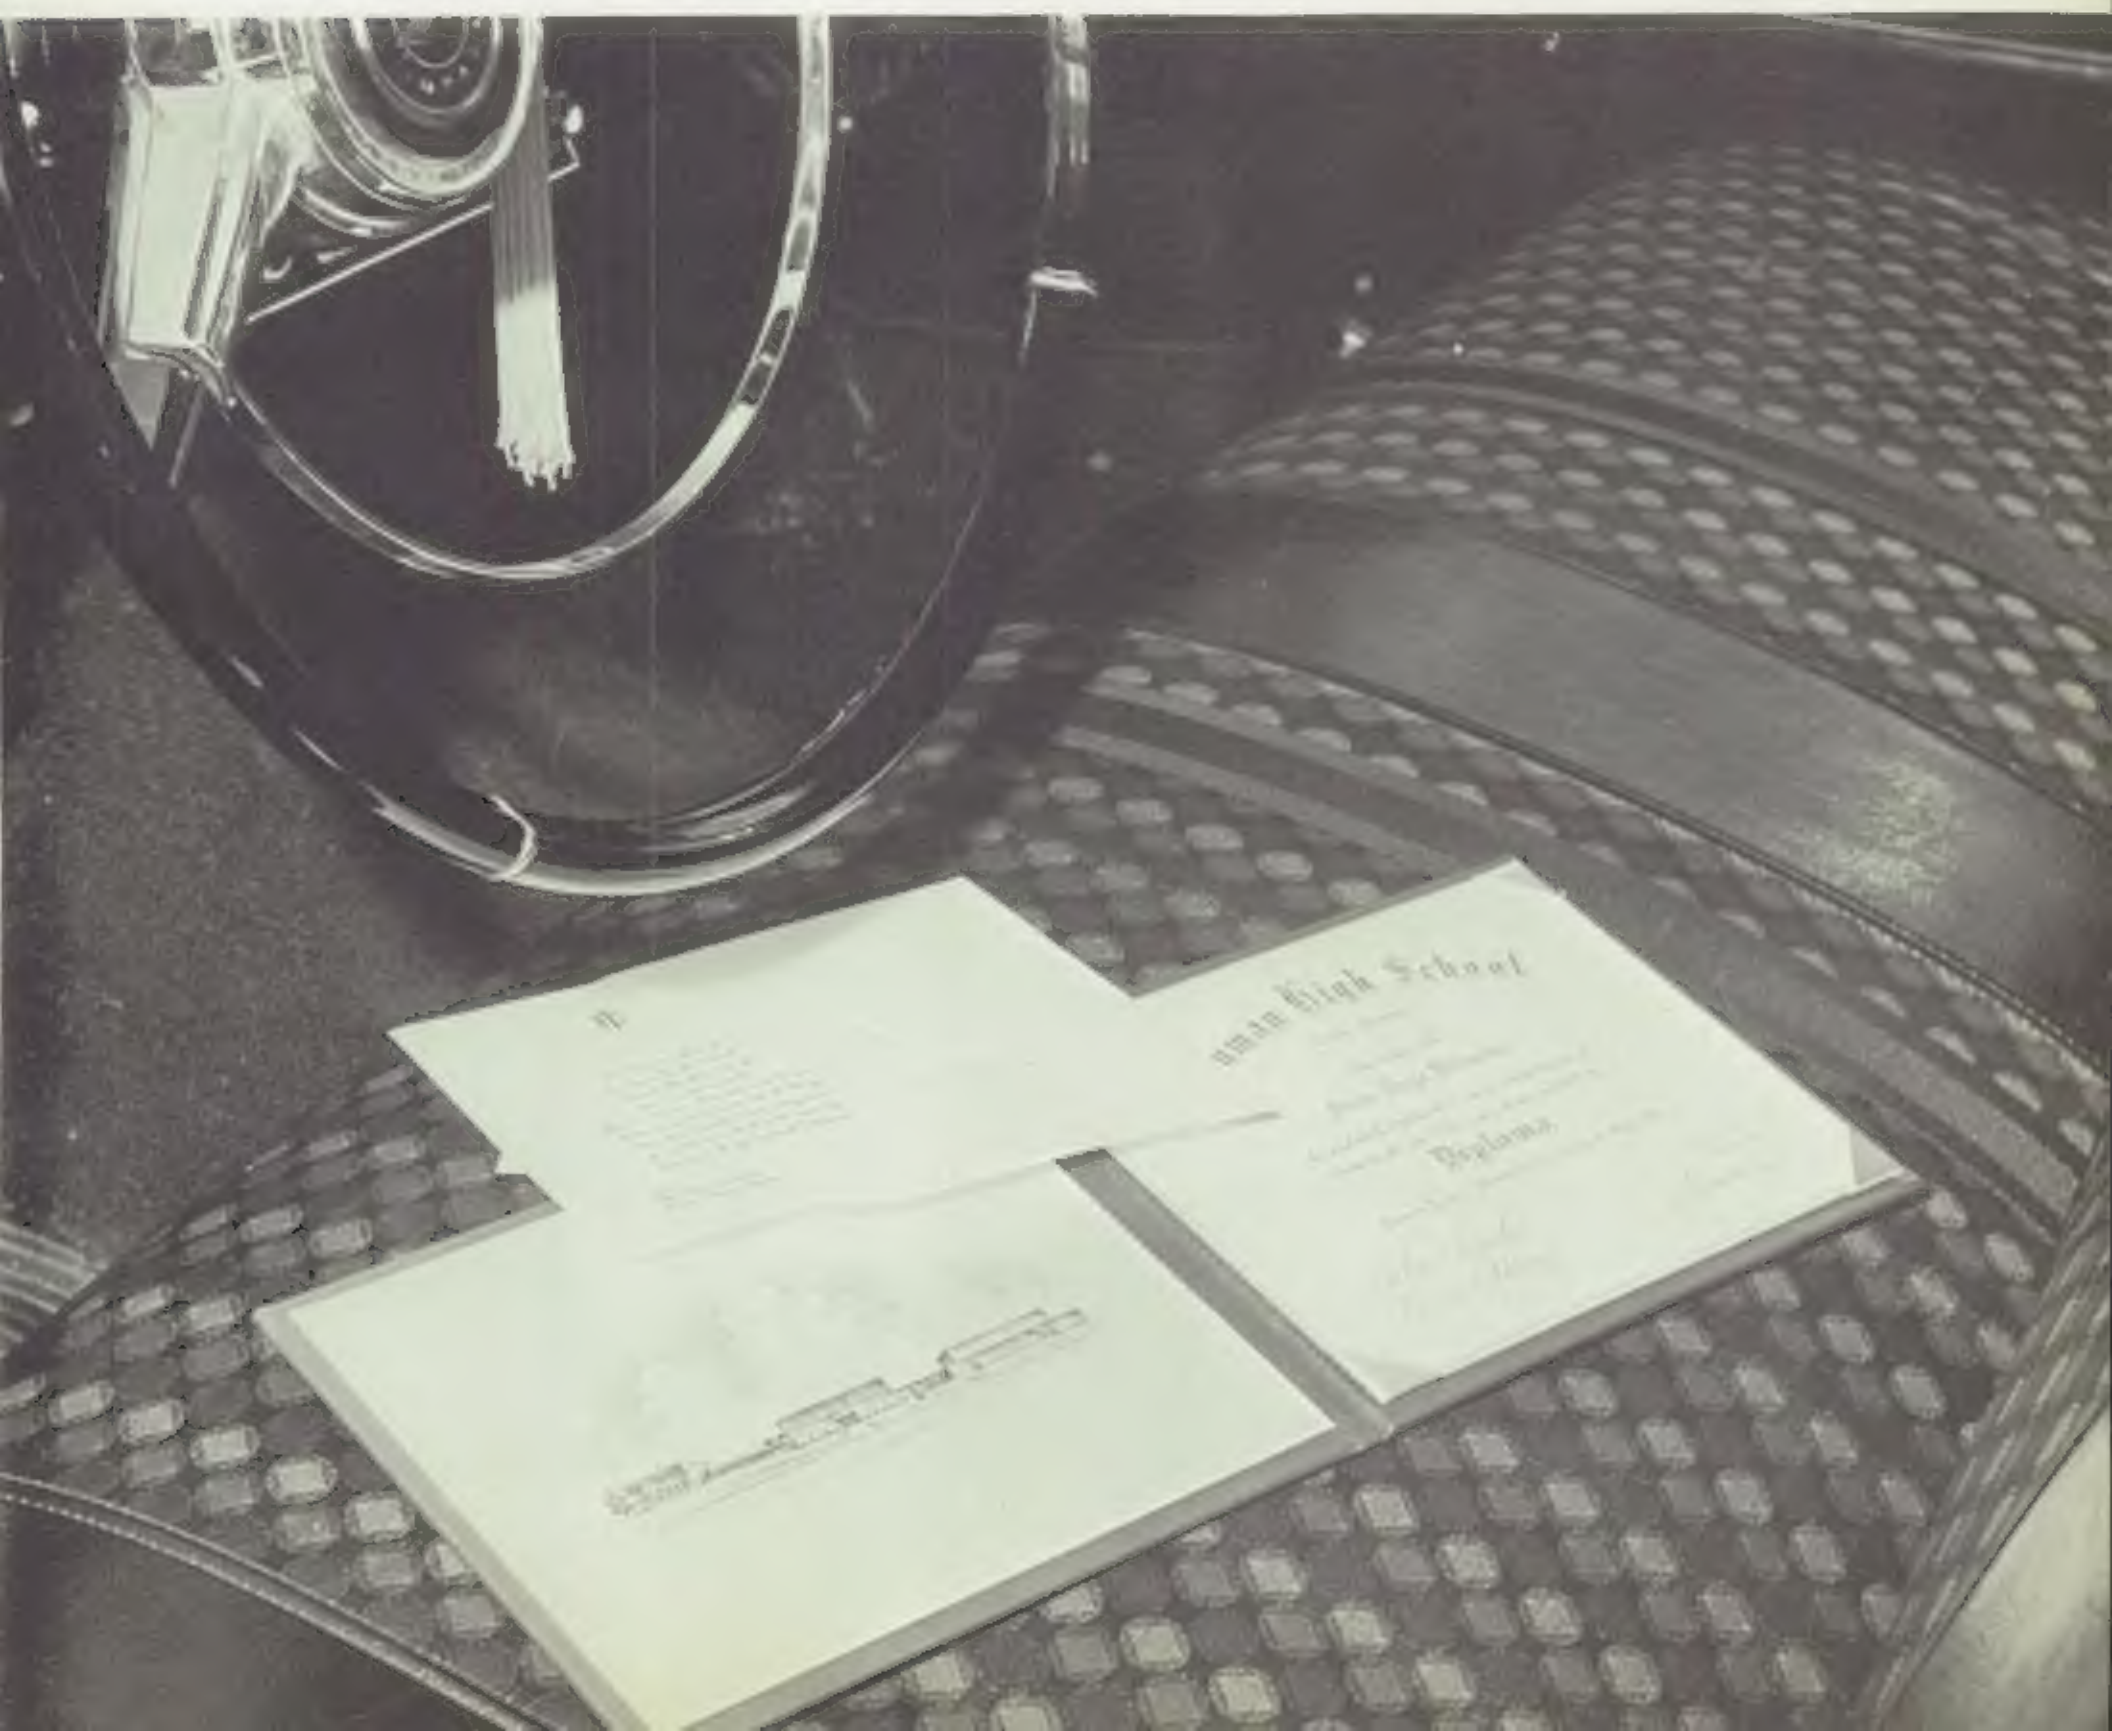

On October 2, 1968, he flew from California to Viet Nam, where he participated in many operations, the most notable of which were Mavi Peak, Meade River, Taylor Common, L. Z. Tomahawk and Durham Peak. He lost his life while being medi-voc'd out of the field to home base at Hoa.

Leon's favorite scripture passage, which he often quoted in his letters home, was from Psalm 121: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help."

Yes, Leon's dreams, aspirations and ambitions have come to an end in serving his fellowmen; may we, the living, re-evaluate our goals and aspirations in life for the betterment of our fellowmen. He touched our lives and left a little of himself with each of us.

We Say Farewell,

Not Good-Bye

It doesn't look heavy, a high-school diploma: only a bit of paper (it isn't really sheepskin), a few drops of ink, a bit of colored ribbon from Woolworth's. It doesn't weigh much; nevertheless, a high-school diploma is heavy. It is heavy with expectations.

There is the expectation of teachers that the diploma bearer will be willing to use the dictionary and the encyclopedia, the expectation that he will think clean and clear and straight and frequently.

There is the expectation of both teachers and parents that he will be teachable, and being teachable is essentially wanting to grow in wisdom and understanding.

There are the citizens who expect him to be a good citizen, informed about the world with its variety of governments but loyal to America.

There are the neighbors who expect him to be dependable, able to carry routine for a succession of days.

And there are those friends who expect him to have a special ability of understanding and caring for people, any people, all people.

The high-school diploma is a heavy bit of luggage when the proud graduate sets out for college.

ACTIVITIES

KING STEVE

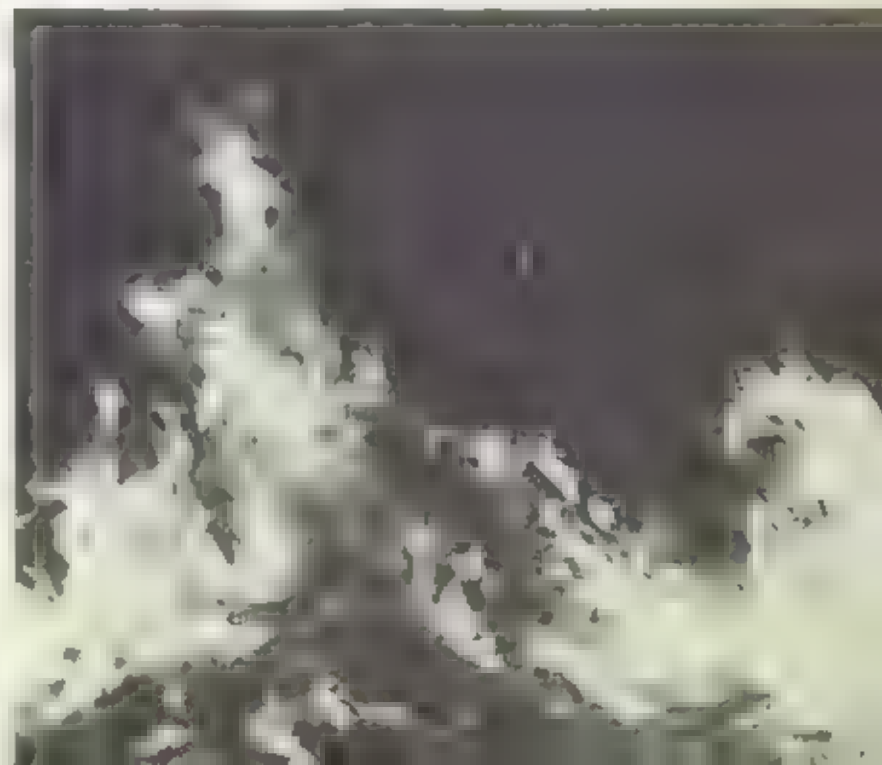

"Orbit the Orioles"

The Homecoming festivities kicked off with the crowning of Queen Susan Peterson and King Steve Zoeller. T.H.S. began off Thursday evening with a bon fire and pep fest on the athletic field. Friday afternoon the festivities were in full swing with a beautiful parade of the royalty and Homecoming floats. The evening started with Truman Orbiting the Trumont Orioles with a score of 42 to 16. The festivities were concluded with a Grand March and Dance. Music was provided by the Leaves of Grass.

The Mouse That Roared

The play, designed humorously, moved swiftly along as plans unfolded for the citizens of a small town armed with bows and arrows to attack New York City. It was thought that if they lost a war to the U.S., the winning country would pour gold into their country. Much of the humor was provided by Alan Reddar. Professor Kohn, as he besought them nervously to take care of his bomb. Linda, as Linda, served as Duchess of the country. Larry Rode portrayed the naive but loyal leader of the invasion Mrs. Erickson, her student directors and cast members, and all who took part are to be commended on a job well done.

ATHLETICS

The Long Hours

of Practice

The 1969 Football season started its winning streak once again to 13-0 wins. The pace was changed, however, when we lost to Sherburn, our conference defenders. Our last game of the season ended in a tie. Our congratulations go to Greg Urevig and Butch Haycraft who made the WCCO Prep Parade. The Most Improved Player, Don Kuhlman and All-Conference winner Steve Zoeller, Greg Urevig, Butch Haycraft and Terry Petterson. T.H.S. would like to commend the boys for a fine football season.

1. THE MINIMAX LOOK — Designer Georges Kaplan revealed this solution to the mini-maxi debate in women's coats. Models wear minimax coats which combine features of both.

2. MAY FACE COURT MARTIAL — Lt. William L. Calley Jr. (right) walks with his military defense counsel, Maj. Kenneth A. Raby at Ft. Benning, Georgia. Calley has been charged with the murder of civilians during an attack on My Lai, a village in Vietnam.

3. TO BEGIN SERVICE — A Boeing 747 superjet dwarfs Boeing's intercontinental 707 — once the largest jettliner in the air. The new jumbojet will be put into service in 1970.

4. BIAFRAN REFUGEES — Biafran refugees are shown carrying children and belongings as they flee from advancing Nigerian troops.

5. MOON WALK — In July, 1969, man took his greatest leap into space and walked on the surface of the moon during the Apollo 11 mission. This was followed in November by Apollo 12 and another manned lunar landing.
